Attributable to Chief Executive Officer, Justin Hanney

During the recent hard lockdown, the Victorian Government delegated City of Melbourne with responsibility for overseeing the receipt and distribution of all food and supplies to residents in the North Melbourne public housing estate.

A number of identical packages from the One Nation Senator were delivered to 125/76 Canning Street North Melbourne addressed "to the householder."

The City of Melbourne consulted with Australia post, and also lodged a complaint with the Australian Federal Police to investigate whether the delivery breached the Commonwealth Criminal Code.

The City of Melbourne ceased its responsibility for overseeing delivery at the estate and so we requested that Australia Post collect the parcels. The City of Melbourne subsequently withdrew its complaint from the Australian Federal Police.
